

Aluminum Inswing Sectional Standard Sill

The LaCantina Doors Aluminum system can be configured so the panels swing and stack to the interior. Inswing configurations are suitable for weather protected openings only. It is important that the exterior surface level is lower than the sill to enable weep drainage from the sill.

