

Aluminum Outswing Sectional Recessed Standard Sill

Recessing the standard outswing sill provides a minimal transition from inside to outside with effective weather sealing. The sill is installed into the sub floor and allows the interior finish floor to be level with the interior sill stop. It is important that the exterior surface level is lower than the sill to enable water drainage from the sill to the exterior. Please note net frame height will be measured from the exterior.

